The main causes of the Cold War include ideological differences between capitalism and communism, the power vacuum after World War II, mutual distrust between the United States and the Soviet Union, and conflicting national interests. The division of Germany and Berlin, the arms race, and differing visions for global influence fueled tensions, ultimately leading to a prolonged period of hostility without direct military confrontation.

Question 2: Describe the process of decolonization in Africa after World War II.

Answer:

Decolonization in Africa was driven by nationalist movements seeking independence from European colonial powers.
